

STUDENT AMBASSADOR UPDATE

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES - OCT/ NOV 21

Thank You

Thank you to all the ambassadors that helped with our UG virtual open week. This was a huge event across the University and we could not have done this without our student ambassador support. We hope that we can return to campus for our next central open days!

Welcome!

A big welcome to our new postgraduate student ambassadors that have joined the team since our last update.

Work Opportunities October / November

Student Profiles (UG & PG) All Schools

Thank you to all the students that have contacted us to provide a profile for your programme, you should have all now received a response with the instructions on how to complete this. Please let us know if you have any questions about this.

If you are interested in representing your programme across web and print media, please get in touch with humsmarketing@manchester.ac.uk with 'Ambassador Profile' as the subject line.

Short Video Content (UG AMBS and SEED)

As we begin to receive applications from students wanting to study at the University of Manchester we want to make sure we can provide them with the best information to help them inform their decision. As such, we are asking for student ambassadors to help create some video content talking about their course and their time in Manchester.

This opportunity will pay around 1 to 2 hours for your work! If this is something you thing you would be interested in getting involved with, please email your respective ambassadors to get more information.

Contact: AMBSambassadors@manchester.ac.uk / SEEDambassadors@manchester.ac.uk

Mini-Stories (UG multiple subjects)

We are also looking for short-form videos (think Insta-stories) for use in our marketing and recruitment content. We are looking for UG students from the following programmes:

- Art History
- Religions
- Languages
- History
- Drama
- English Literature
- Linguistics
- Liberal Arts
- Geography
- Data Analytics/Social Statistics
- Social Anthropology
- Philosophy

We would look to produce short videos that expand upon 'I choose to study here because..,' 'The best thing about my programme...' 'My Manchester highlight is...'

Please contact humsmarketing@manchester.ac.uk with 'Mini-Story' as the subject line or if you have any questions about this project! Each mini-story would be paid at one hour on a timesheet.

Campus Tours (SOSS and SALC)

We are planning to hold campus tours for prospective students and offer holders on upcoming Wednesday afternoons between 1pm and 2pm for both SoSS and SALC.

This would be paid for 1 hour of work. If this is an opportunity that you would be interested in, and you will be free consistently for these times on a Wednesday afternoon, please email salcambassadors@manchester.ac.uk or sossambassadors@manchester.ac.uk so that we can add you to our tour list.

Campus Tours (AMBS and SEED)

Students are increasingly contacting us with regards to visiting the school and meeting current students. To meet this demand, we are hoping to utilise you as ambassadors to speak to interested students and then give a tour of campus. If this is something you are interested in, please fill in the form below with availability you may have and you may be contacted in the future if you are required.

'Week in the life of a student' SALC Bloggers Needed!

We have previously emailed our SALC student ambassadors about needing a week in the life blog for each course, thank you to those who have stepped forward already to complete them, you should have all been emailed on 27/10/2021 confirming if we would like you to write one. We are still missing student ambassadors to write one for the following course, so if this is something you're interested in please contact salcambassadors@manchester.ac.uk for more information:

- Art History
- CAHAE
- Drama
- Liberal Arts

You will be paid for 2 hours work for writing this blog post, and they would be due no later than 05/11/2021.

Geography Takeover! (Geography Awareness Week)

We are looking to feature Geography students at all levels (UG and PG) to take part in our day in the life of a Geography student as part of Geography Awareness Week (November 15–19, 2021). You would need to be comfortable appearing on camera (phone camera, portrait mode) and sharing your student activity during a day of that week.

If you would like to help represent your subject area with this role, please contact humsmarketing@manchester.ac.uk with 'Geography Takeover' as the subject line.

Upcoming Unibuddy Live Event for BA American Studies

We are looking for student ambassadors studying American Studies to participate in a Unibuddy live event for us from 2pm-4pm on 15/12/2021. This would involve answering questions from prospective students about the American Studies course and your time at the university. If this is something you would be interested in, please contact salcambassadors@manchester.ac.uk and let us know.

Subject Videos (15th - 19th November)

Thank you to all the students that have come forward to be involved with new subject promotional videos across Humanities. You should have now been contacted if you did provide a positive response to being included. If you have not received any further updates to submitting your response, please contact humsmarketing@manchester.ac.uk

Please also keep an eye on your email and we will expect some late requests for student filming to be sent out with the details of the schedule and payment.

Campus Student Photos (22nd - 26th November) SALC

We will also be working with a photographer later in November to refresh some of our photo content involving students in and around buildings in the School of Arts, Languages and Cultures. We would initially be looking for 10 students who would be happy to appear on campus and in a variety of contexts with other students.

If you are interested in being involved in this project (expected to be afternoon up to 3 hours) please declare your interest by emailing humsmarketing@manchester.ac.uk with 'Campus Photos' in the subject line.

That's all for now, have a happy Halloween weekend!
