

The University of Manchester

DEGREE CELEBRATIONS

Faculty of Humanities

Class of 2020

Congratulations

from the President and Vice-Chancellor

I am delighted to welcome graduates, family members and friends to The University of Manchester for this degree congregation. This is a time of celebration and a chance to come together to mark the achievements of our graduates. Graduation in any year is a special occasion, and even more so for all of our students who have been impacted so greatly by COVID-19. I hope you all enjoy this special day.

As you, our graduates, take the stage, the University shares with you a great sense of pride in the award you have worked so hard to achieve, during the most difficult of times. This celebration may be delayed, but it is no less meaningful, and I am delighted to welcome you back on campus to mark the occasion as you deserve.

Now is the time to look ahead; I encourage you to take charge of your future, find your voice and form your own opinions. You have faced and overcome challenges not known in our generations, giving you the skills, knowledge and experience to succeed in the face of adversity.

As you celebrate with us today, know that you are ready to take on your next challenge with confidence and share and apply your learnings to make the world a better place for us all.

You are now part of a worldwide network of more than 500,000 alumni – I hope that the links between you and our institution will grow stronger as you become an active member of one of the world's largest global alumni communities.

We are immensely proud of our Class of 2020. I wish you every success for the future and hope you have a truly memorable day.

Professor Dame Nancy Rothwell

To our Class of 2020, congratulations on your degree and all you have achieved while studying with us.

A message from the Vice-President and Dean of the Faculty of Humanities Extraordinary times produce extraordinary people. Faced with the unparalleled challenges of recent years, you have every right to be proud of your achievement. Today is an opportunity to acknowledge this and to celebrate with your family, friends and supporters.

During these difficult times, we have all learnt new skills, adapted and found strength we were not sure we possessed. Your journey to your graduation ceremony may have felt like a hard climb at times – now you can take in the view and reflect on all you have achieved.

Throughout your time at Manchester and your studies in Humanities, you have honed your ability to think independently and evidence your reasoning; support and inspire others; navigate ethical dilemmas; and challenge prejudice and social injustice.

These skills and knowledge are highly sought after by employers who will rely on you to help solve some of the world's greatest challenges and create a more prosperous, sustainable and equitable future.

Whether you become artists, educators, social scientists, geographers, lawyers or business leaders, I have every faith you will continue to achieve great things and make lasting contributions to the communities and the organisations of which you will be part.

Enjoy the next stage of your journey and stay in touch through our global alumni community. I look forward to hearing about your successes.

Professor Keith Brown

During the course of this event no alarm test or emergency evacuation practice has been planned. Therefore, if the alarm, which is a single stage alarm, is activated it should be treated as a potential incident requiring evacuation.

Attendees are asked to remain calm and seated and follow the instructions given by stewarding staff.

The Assembly point is on the front quadrangle, which is adjacent to the Whitworth Hall in front of the John Owens Building.
