

FOOD AND RELIGION

A CPD EVENT FOR RE SCHOOL TEACHERS

Looking for teaching resources that offer new ways of linking familiar everyday choices with religious practices?

Saturday 4 February 2023
9.30am to 2pm

Room A102
Samuel Alexander Building
University of Manchester

Organised by:

Dr Hephzibah Israel, University of Edinburgh
Dr John Zavos, University of Manchester
Nisha Bansal, Trinity C of E High School, Manchester
Paul Slater, Trinity C of E High School, Manchester

Our free workshop will introduce you to a newly developed set of six lessons aiming to help teachers and students explore food choices in religious settings in a nuanced and culturally aware manner.

The lessons invite critical thinking on the extent to which food practices are central to contemporary ways of being religious and social in multicultural Britain.

At the workshop, you will take away a pack of resources to use in your own teaching.

The workshop is free, but booking via Eventbrite is essential for catering purposes.

<https://foodandreligion.eventbrite.co.uk>

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of Literatures,
Languages and Cultures

