

A week in the life of our Law with Politics student, Eve

Hi, I'm Eve and I am currently in my final year of studying Law with Politics. I want to specialise in commercial law in the future so I am lucky that Manchester has one of the best departments for this. Manchester is a fantastic location to be; even after living here for a while, I continue to be excited by the culture and atmosphere of the city. Regarding the Law School, I am constantly in awe of the faculty members' intelligence and expertise. Many of them are experts in their fields as researchers or practitioners, and they are incredibly passionate about the subjects they study. I am confident that I am learning from the top professors every day while I attend university.
