

A week in the life of our Drama and English Literature student, Maisie

Hi I'm Maisie and I'm in my last year of studying Drama and English

Literature. The Theatre in Prisons and Probation (TiPP) course was a key reason why I chose this course and I'm so thrilled I'm finally studying it, it's everything I hoped it would be and more! The opportunity to do a workshop residency is unique and I'm so grateful for the training and the close knit ensemble we've built on the course. Outside of the course, I'm an active member of Drama Society and Musical Theatre Society and love my job at the Royal Exchange Theatre. My favourite way to unwind is obsessing over Bake-Off, Strictly and Taskmaster with some wine and my lovely housemates!
