

JOIN OUR CREATIVE ACTIVISTS

First meeting:
18 October, 4-6PM

This autumn we are relaunching our Creative Activists project. We're looking for people aged 18 - 25 who are seeking to create powerful acts of sharing and connection with local communities to join the group.

Participants will explore stories from our collection connected to the Second World War and the Holocaust. They will share these stories with audiences as part of Holocaust Memorial Day, as well as look to elicit positive change in their own communities through art and activism.

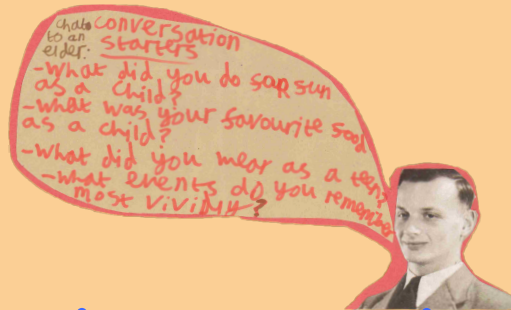

The project will culminate in participants curating an open day and exhibition at the museum on Holocaust Memorial Day 2024.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

- We will be meeting weekly at Manchester Jewish Museum. Meetings will be held on Wednesdays, 4-6PM.
- Workshops are free and open to anybody aged 18-25, of all backgrounds and identities. We believe that everybody can bring a valuable perspective to the project.
- Our meetings are informal and the atmosphere is friendly and supportive. Refreshments provided.
- No previous artistic experience necessary. Just bring yourself and an open mind!

"I think that utilising your passions, mine being writing and theatre, in order to make a social statement or a piece of art as deeply personal as what we have been creating here, is something imperative. I am so thankful to all of the brilliant creatives I've had the opportunity to work with over the past year and hope that you can find a little of yourself in any corner of the work we've done."
