

ELLI

A WEEK IN THE LIFE: BA ARABIC AND FRENCH

Hi, I'm Elli, a 2nd year Arabic and French student. I really enjoy how I can combine my love for languages with my interest in history, politics, literature, and art. This year, I'm taking modules in post-colonial Arabic literature, French cinema, and Middle Eastern politics. The AMES department is super welcoming, and their social events are a great way to meet other AMES students. Our small class and high number of contact hours mean we can progress quickly in our language skills. I'll be spending my third year in Jordan, which is what drew me to the course at Manchester. Manchester is such a great place to be a student – there's always something to do. My friends and I love going to explore the Northern Quarter, which has some great live jazz in the evenings!

Part-time work

Social/ exercise

Formal study hours

Informal study hours

Societies

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
8-10	Lecture	Call family	Self study			Open Day work
10-12	Food shop			Seminar	Workshop
12-14		Lecture	Lecture		Workshop		Bake with housemates
14-16	French speaking	Arabic language	Academic advisor meeting	Self study	French writing
16-18	Lecture
18-20		Netball society	Netball match	Relax with housemates
20-22	Yoga	Go to friend's house	Netball social		Spend time with friends	Pub with housemates	Relax and get ready for next week
	Self study						