

A WEEK IN THE LIFE : ENGLISH LITERATURE AND FRENCH

IZZY

Hi, I'm Izzy – I'm currently in my fourth year studying English Literature and French at the University of Manchester. English Literature and French is a great subject combination. I enjoy the books and discussions in my English modules, we look at films, books, and poetry related to all sorts of literary and political movements from all over the world and I particularly enjoy discussing all sorts of ideas in the seminars. On the French side of my course, we take 3+ hours language a week as well as modules in francophone literature, film, art, politics, and music. Last year I was in Lyon, France for my year abroad where I studied at a French university which not only massively improved my French but gave me so many memories and friendships. I love Manchester as a city, it is full of cool art exhibitions, pubs, and live music gigs. It is a big city, but the student community is everywhere, so I have never felt lost or overwhelmed.

Part-time work

Social/exercise

Formal study hours

Informal study hours

Societies

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
8-10
10-12		Lecture	Seminar		Seminar
12-14	Self-study	Lunch with friends	Self-study	Self-study	Self-study	Part time job
		Lecture
14-16	French oral class	Self-study		Seminar			Lunch with friends
16-18				Seminar
18-20	Climbing society event	Part-time job					Film night at friend's house
20-22			Climbing society social	Dinner and film with housemates	Pub with housemates		