

DANIEL

A WEEK IN THE LIFE: MUSIC

My name is Daniel and I'm a second year music student. I'm a violinist, and I really enjoy how performance based the degree is: having previously studied at conservatoire, I was looking to maintain a similar standard of teaching and performance opportunities, and I am very glad I have been able to find this at university. In addition to performance, I have also taken a keen interest in ethnomusicology since beginning my studies, and find the lectures and seminars incredibly insightful. I am also the Inclusion Officer for the Musical Theatre Society, and I'm frequently in the cast for the musicals. This is a real highlight of my time at university, to the point in which I'm more than happy to give up some of my weekend for rehearsals!
