

Teaching Innovation Space, Booth Street East - Student Information

Name		Room	Capacity	Booking Contact	Description
Lecture Theatre A Lecture Theatre B	Ground	G.3 G.10	140 70	not bookable	Refurbished lecture theatre for centrally timetabled teaching.
Tech free space	Ground	G.7	22	not bookable	A versatile space for group discussions and hybrid learning, where students can also unwind between classes.
Hyflex teaching space	Ground	G.8	36	not bookable	Equipped with advanced A/V tech, this space allows live teaching sessions both in-person and online at the same time
Teaching Rooms	Ground	G.1 G.2 G.4	20 24 24	not bookable	Timetabled teaching rooms available for scheduled classes
VR Training and Development Room	First	1.09	24	flexiblelearning@manchester.ac.uk	This multi-function room is designed as a space for training and development of small groups.
VR suite	First	1.10	8	flexiblelearning@manchester.ac.uk	VR pods designed for safe, multi-user VR experiences. Headsets not included
Podcasting suite	First	1.07	Approx. 4	mediaservices@manchester.ac.uk	Podcasting suite with high-quality video and audio production, featuring dedicated microphones, three PTZ cameras, studio lighting, and a touch-panel control system
Editing suites	First	1.03 - 1.06	2 per suite	mediaservices@manchester.ac.uk	Editing workstations equipped with Adobe Creative Cloud, professional lighting, high-quality cameras, and microphones
Video Theatre and Green Room	First	1.12-1.13	NA	mediaservices@manchester.ac.uk for information on space	The Video Lecture Theatre is a media capture space with broadcast-quality lighting, cameras, and audio, operated by Media Services for producing high-end content. The attached Green Room allows groups to view live recordings and playback