

People Updates

Please read below to see a recent update to the House Services structure, as well as for a round-up of new and leaving staff across the Directorate.

House Services update

House Services are excited to share an update following their recent team restructure. Congratulations to the following individuals on their new appointments:

- Angela Chant – House Services Manager (formerly Deputy House Services Manager)
- Lee Goldbourn – Deputy House Services Manager (formerly Cluster Manager)
- Jakub Przybyszewski - Cluster Manager (formerly Assistant Cluster Manager)
- Lee McCann - Assistant Cluster Manager (formerly Building Attendant)
- Aaron Baker - Supervisor (formerly Building Attendant)
- Amy Fairburn - Supervisor (formerly Building Attendant)
- Bart Kantorowski - Supervisor (formerly Building Attendant)
- Samuel Newton - Supervisor (formerly Building Attendant)
- Theo Nwali - Supervisor (formerly Building Attendant)

This restructuring process is ongoing, and they look forward to welcoming additional Supervisors in 2025.

New starters

Conferencing, Venues, and Hospitality:

- Ellen Reed – Event Coordinator, Conferences and Venues

Environmental Sustainability team:

- Finn Edwards – Graduate Intern
- Emmy McGuire – Graduate Intern
- Isabel Whyte – Environmental Sustainability Officer

Faculty Estates:

- Gary Ingraham – Head of Faculty Estates (FSE), joining the Faculty Estates Team on Monday, 6 January from the School of Engineering ‘Infrastructure and Facilities’ team.
- Ciaran Pook – Senior Faculty Estates Operations Officer (FBMH), joining on Monday, 13 January from the University Library.

House Services:

- Warren Atherton – Cluster Manager
- Emily McEvoy – Clerical Assistant

Landscaping team:

- Chris Marsland
- Phil McQueen