

Engage

Centre community organisations in your strategies.

Be open to creative ways of working together.

Embrace slow and meaningful collaborations.

Ensure we always have a seat at the table.

Listen when we say something is not working.

Empower

Acknowledge and address power inequalities in all activities.

Encourage open and accessible language and communication.

Find ways for us to grow, locally and nationally.

Respect that we are community-led.

Display confidence in our actions.

Support

Commit to supporting us in the long-term.

Demonstrate that you believe in our cause.

Remove barriers to seeking further help.

Offer to share and showcase our work

Learn from mistakes together.

Invest

Make time for human connection.

Sustain community infrastructure and resources.

Contribute financial resources for our longevity.

Value our research skills as a community.

Encourage the right people to get involved.

How to Nurture our Anti-Poverty Research Community: Guiding Principles for Policy-Makers

illustration by maddyvian.com

UK Research and Innovation

The University of Manchester

