

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

Dr Williams's
Library

The University of Manchester Library and the Dr Williams's Library Partnership Celebration event

You are invited to help us celebrate the establishment of a partnership that brings together the world's finest collections of non-conformist religious social history, now located in Manchester, a city renowned for its dissent and innovation.

This collaboration has created the world's most significant scholarly resource for the history of non-conformist traditions.

Please join us for celebratory drinks and cakes.

Wednesday, 11 June 2025, 5.30pm - 9.00pm

Speeches at 6.00pm

The John Rylands Library