1. Go to www.gov.uk/view-prove-immigration-status and Select Start Now

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL www.gov.uk/view-prove-immigration-status. The page title is "View and prove your immigration status". The main content area includes a heading "View and prove your immigration status", a sub-heading "If you have been told you can view your immigration status online you can use this service to:", and a list of three bullet points: "get a 'share code' to prove your status to others, for example employers", "update your personal details, for example your passport number or email address", and "check what rights you have in the UK, for example the right to work or claim benefits". To the right of this list is a "Related content" section with three links: "Apply to the EU Settlement Scheme (settled or pre-settled status)", "Check your right to work for an employer", and "Private centres". Below this is a section "Who can use this service" with a sub-heading "You can use this service if you:" and a list of two bullet points: "have settled or pre-settled status" and "applied for a visa and used the 'UK Immigration ID Check' app to scan your identity document on your phone". A callout box states: "You cannot use this service if you have a vignette in your passport or a biometric residence permit to prove your immigration status. There's a different service for you to access your right to work, to an employer." Below this is a section "View or prove your immigration status" with a sub-heading "You'll need:" and a list of three bullet points: "details of the identity document you used when you applied (your passport, national identity card, or biometric residence card or permit)", "your date of birth", and "access to the mobile number or email address you used when you applied - you'll be sent a code for logging in". At the bottom of the page is a green button labeled "Start now >".

7. The details of your Immigration Status will appear; select Prove Your Status to Someone

The screenshot shows the 'Status' page of the UK Home Office. At the top, it says 'Status' in a blue header. Below that, there is a photo of a person and a document. The text reads: 'You have settled status, also known as indefinite leave to remain.' Under 'Details', it says: 'You can live, work and study in the UK, and access public funds and services. There is no limit on how long you can stay in the UK. Read about your rights with settled or pre-settled status.' There is a 'Rotate' button. Below that, it says: 'If your name is spelled wrong or your photo is not correct, contact the EU Settlement Resolution Centre.' There is a link for 'Legal basis of status'. At the bottom, there are two boxes: 'Prove your status' and 'Update your details'. A red arrow points to the link 'Prove your status to someone' in the 'Prove your status' box. Below the 'Prove your status' box is a link for 'Finish and leave service'.
