

DARCI

A WEEK IN THE LIFE: BA ITALIAN AND SPANISH

Hi, my name is Darci and I'm a final year studying Italian and Spanish - a perfect fit for my love of languages and exploring different cultures! Beyond academics, I love the vibrant social life in Manchester and the diversity of experiences on campus, which has allowed me to meet and become friends with so many different kinds of people while studying here. I co-host a weekly radio show on FUSE FM, where we delve into the soundscapes of Latin America. Balancing my studies, radio and workouts, I always make time to socialise and enjoy everything that university life has to offer. Below is the usual structure of my week. I always do all my work in the day to leave space in the evening for potential plans I have with friends, whether that be the pub or watching a movie with my housemates. On weekends, I keep my schedule open to spend quality time with friends, enjoy nights out and catch up on homework or assignments. This balance lets me recharge and stay on top of my studies while making the most of my social life.
