

GLOBAL MONETARY HISTORY AND POLICY LESSONS

Arthur Lewis Building, floor 2, room 2.016/2017 (boardroom)

- 9.00 Opening remarks and organizational notes by the organizers
- 9.10 François Velde (Chicago Fed), Britain's debt restructuring of 1720-23
- 9.30 Matthias Morys (University of York), Where It All Begins: Eurodollars and International Monetary Policy Transmission under Bretton Woods (with Guillaume Bazot and Eric Monnet)
- 9.50 Rebecca Stuart (Queen's Business School), Missing persistence: measurement errors and US inflation before WWI (with Stefan Gerlach)
- 10.10 Max Harris (Wharton, UPenn), Gold after the Nixon Shock: The Role of the Yellow Metal in the 1970s
- 10.30 Coffee break
- 11.30 Hiroki Shin (University of Birmingham), The Ascent of Paper Currency (with Nuno Palma)
- 11.50 Policy session. Will Roberds (Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta), Reserve management operations: how little has changed in 300 years
- 12.30 Lunch break
- 13.30 Keynote by Nathan Sussman (Geneva Graduate Institute), From Shells to Crypto: How Politics, Technology, Liquidity, and Credibility Shape Money
- 14.30 Coffee break
- 15.00 Larry Neal (University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign), Can financial history help the EU develop a "safe asset"?
- 15.20 Alejandra Irigoin (LSE), Standard error: the monetary role of foreign silver in China - from Qianlong to the fall of Qing
- 15.40 Roman Zaoral (Charles University, Prague), Monetisation in Medieval Bohemia
- 16.00 Nuno Palma (University of Manchester), The Fraudster and the Bank (with Luís F. Costa and Renato Pistola)
- 16.20 Closing remarks by the organizers
- 16.30 Conference ends
- 18.30 Optional drinks & dinner at Zouk Tea Bar & Grill