

University of Manchester,
Centre for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Research seminar series 2025/26

8 Oct

Nuno Palma, UoM (Economic History) – African Slavery and the Reckoning of Brazil

22 Oct

Leandro Minuchin, UoM (Architecture) – Architectures of Exit: Libertarianism, Anarcho-Capitalism, and the Substitution of Politics in Latin America

12 Nov

Ed King, Bristol (LAS) – Addressing Algorithmic Bias through Video Game Design in Brazil

26 Nov

Nicolle Alzamora, UoM (SPLAS) – A Tale of Two Invasions: Fictional Excavations of Panama's Difficult Pasts

10 Dec

Agustin Diz, Edinburgh (Social Anthropology) – After Abundance: Guaraní Settlements and the Making of the Gran Chaco's Extractive Frontier

4 Feb

Austin Zeiderman, LSE (Geography) – Artery: Racial Ecologies in Fluvial Colombia

26 Feb

Lucía Tiscornia, Dublin (Politics) – Criminal Governance in Unexpected Places: the case of Uruguay

12 Mar

Rafael Montero, independent musician – Rafael Montero performance; and 16:30: roundtable

18 Mar

Luis Schenoni, UCL (Politics) – Bringing War Back In: Victory, Defeat, and the State in Nineteenth-Century Latin America

25 Mar

Lu Childs (Street Team Productions) – Film screening: Madan Saras

22 Apr

Nathaniel Andrews, UoM (History) – Anarchist childhoods in Buenos Aires, 1890-1945

6 May

Laura Marcela Balan, Universidad Libertadores (Comms) – When the Other Looks Back: Mock Ethnography and the Deconstruction of Otherness in O Peixe