

The University of Manchester

Degree Congregations

JULY 2012

At The University of Manchester, we focus on making things happen, turning enthusiasm into achievement and ground-breaking theory into cutting-edge practice.

Our newest graduates today join a prestigious hall of fame that includes 25 Nobel Prize winners among our current and former staff and students, and a worldwide community of more than 240,000 alumni who can be found holding top positions in every imaginable field.

Over a distinguished history spanning more than 180 years, our innovative minds have accomplished feats of global importance, including the birth of the modern computer, the splitting of the atom, and the foundation of modern-day economics.

Today, our students form a diverse and fascinating community, drawn from all corners of the globe, united in their goal to build a better future via a world-class educational experience of a lifetime.

We encourage our students to take charge of their future, finding a voice and forming opinions, getting involved and meeting fresh challenges, making the most of the multitude of resources and opportunities that we have to offer.

And we know, with their intelligence, inspiration and ambition, our new graduates will find they have what it takes to make their future happen.

Welcome

from the President and Vice-Chancellor

I welcome you all –graduands, family members and friends – to The University of Manchester for this degree congregation.

This is a time of celebration for all of us and I very much hope that you find it an enjoyable occasion. As each graduand is presented for conferment of their degree, the University shares with you all a great sense of pride in the award they have worked so hard to attain.

For those of you graduating today, these ceremonies mark not the end of your relationship with the University but the start of a new stage. It is my hope that the links between the University and you will grow ever stronger and I look forward to you becoming an active member of the University's alumni body.

I wish you every success for the future and that you all have a truly memorable day.

Professor Dame Nancy Rothwell
President and Vice-Chancellor

The Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences

The Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences is large and comprehensive with nine component schools: Chemical Engineering and Analytical Science; Chemistry; Computer Science; Earth, Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences; Electrical and Electronic Engineering; Materials; Mathematics; Mechanical, Aerospace and Civil Engineering; and Physics and Astronomy. Together they offer a diverse portfolio of research and teaching of the highest quality.

Many of the major advances of the 20th century began here, including the work by Rutherford leading to the splitting of the atom and the development of the world's first modern computer. Today, research activities remain at the cutting-edge and the Faculty now generates around £75 million in research funding a year.

The quality, breadth and volume of research activity at the Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences is unrivalled. There are more than 70 specialist research centres and groups at the Faculty, each undertaking pioneering research into areas ranging from nuclear decommissioning and nanotechnology to artificial intelligence and aerospace.

Research is at the heart of The University of Manchester's Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences. The 2008 Research Assessment Exercise revealed outstanding results, with all of our departments demonstrating international or national excellence.

The Faculty of Humanities

The Faculty of Humanities is the largest of the University's four Faculties, with a world leading reputation in research that spans academic areas as diverse as the arts, international development, modern languages, education, law, the social sciences, education, business and management. With a total income of around £190 million per annum, around 18,000, students and some 1000 academic staff, it is equivalent to a medium-sized university in the UK.

Major activities include the Centre for New Writing, the Institute for Social Change, the Brooks World Poverty Institute, Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute, the Manchester Institute for Innovation Research, the Research Institute for Cosmopolitan Cultures, the Centre for Chinese Studies, the Institute for Development Policy and Management, the Centre for Equity in Education and the Sustainable Consumption Institute.

In the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise, Humanities was behind only Oxford and Cambridge in the number of world-leading staff returned, classified as 4*. Of its activity, 22% was classed as world leading and a further 40% as internationally excellent.

The Faculty of Life Sciences

The Faculty of Life Sciences is one of the largest and most successful unified research and teaching organisations of its kind in Europe.

With more than 1,000 people involved in research, 1,500 undergraduate students and an annual budget in excess of £100 million, the Faculty provides a highly interactive research and teaching environment where all barriers to collaboration have been removed.

As such, the Faculty is able to conduct the highest quality research while maintaining an extensive range of undergraduate and graduate programmes, as well as vocational training.

The Faculty was ranked third in the country by quality alone in the two Units evaluated in the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise. When these results were aggregated, it came second only to Cambridge – and ahead of Oxford – in terms of research power (Grade Point Average x number of staff).

The Faculty's research encompasses the entire spread of life sciences from the molecule to the cell to the organism, spanning all fields of biology from environmental studies to cancer biology, from neuroscience to post-genomics, and from structural biology to organ transplantation.

Rapid advances in molecular biology, structural biology, genomics and bioinformatics, will ensure that the life sciences will continue to dominate scientific discoveries in the 21st century.

The Faculty of Medical and Human Sciences

The Faculty of Medical and Human Sciences has a long and proud history of innovative teaching and groundbreaking research, and is one of the largest faculties of clinical and health sciences in Europe.

The Faculty has five Schools – Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Psychological Sciences, and Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work – with strong interdisciplinary links with other Schools and Faculties across the University, including Life Sciences, Engineering and Physical Sciences, Economic and Social Sciences, and Education.

The School of Medicine traces its past to the first medical school established in England outside London, while the School of Nursing was the first British school to offer a degree in the subject; similarly, Manchester was the first university to award degrees in Pharmacy.

The Faculty's performance in the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise (RAE) reflects its strength across an entire range of biomedical and clinical research areas from laboratory-based investigations through to studies of the impact of discoveries on the health of the population.

There is a strong organisational capability for undertaking cross-faculty teaching and research activity in partnership with the public sector and industry. For example, in conjunction with four teaching hospitals, more than 300 GP practices and 25 district hospitals, the Faculty trains in excess of 350 doctors each year. Similarly, in partnership with the Department of Health, it provides continuing professional development training for all 18,500 community pharmacists in England.

Furthermore, teaching and research is spread over a wide area with major links to Central Manchester University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, the Christie NHS Foundation Trust, the Paterson Institute for Cancer Research, Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust, University Hospital of South Manchester NHS Foundation Trust, and Manchester Mental Health and Social Care Trust.

The University of Manchester Award for Outstanding Academic Achievement is awarded to the top students in each graduating year based solely on academic performance and consists of a certificate presented at graduation and a cheque for £1,000.

The prestigious award reflects the exceptional performance of the individual graduates during their time at The University of Manchester.

The 2012 Alumni Association Award Outstanding Alumnus is Dr John Heyworth

Outstanding Alumni Awards are presented each year by The University of Manchester Alumni Association to former students who have achieved distinction in their field or have brought honour to the University through their outstanding achievements.

Dr John Heyworth has dedicated his professional career to improving the welfare of patients by transforming emergency medical care throughout the UK.

A Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery graduate from The University of Manchester in 1976, Dr Heyworth's first posts were at MRI and Wythenshawe Hospital and he then taught anatomy at the Medical School. Dr Heyworth undertook a Short Service Commission in the Royal Navy as Surgeon Lieutenant Commander, before undertaking his higher training in Salford, and then taking on high-profile consultant roles at hospitals in Portsmouth and Southampton. At Southampton, he oversaw the expansion of the consultant team to accommodate 95,000 new patients per year, and the department is now recognised as a leader in clinical practice.

Behind the scenes, Dr Heyworth was a member of the merger board which saw the unification of the British Association for Emergency Medicine and Faculty of Accident and Emergency Medicine into the College of Emergency Medicine in 2008 – and he became its first elected president until 2011.

His work with the government, via the Department of Health's emergency care team, helped to deliver the maximum four-hour waiting targets for Emergency Department patients up and down the country. He continues to follow his passion for emergency care quality thanks to collaborations with the National Clinical Advisory Team and in Europe as Vice President of the European Society for Emergency Medicine.

An extensively published researcher and writer on a variety of emergency medicine topics, Dr Heyworth has been a vocal advocate of accident prevention, a media figurehead on a number of medical matters, and an educator and trainer of other professionals pursuing a career in emergency care, trauma, and life support. He is a Fellow of the College of Emergency Medicine, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh and Fellow of the International Federation for Emergency Medicine.

The 2012 Alumni Association Award Outstanding Alumnus is Professor Alan Cowley

Outstanding Alumni Awards are presented each year by The University of Manchester Alumni Association to former students who have achieved distinction in their field or have brought honour to the University through their outstanding achievements.

Professor Cowley has been recognised as one of the world's leading inorganic chemists for over 50 years. He graduated from the University of Manchester – also his home city – with a Bachelor of Science with Honours in Chemistry in 1955, a Master of Science in 1956, and a Doctor of Philosophy in 1958. In 2003, he received an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Bordeaux, France.

One of Professor Cowley's seminal contributions to inorganic chemistry research was focused on the synthesis and structures of compounds with unprecedented bonds. Some of these compounds have now found practical applications as, for example, precursors to semiconductors, and two patents have been issued in this area. In more recent times, Professor Cowley has turned his attention to the development of novel polymers that can be used in antimicrobial and anticancer treatments.

Professor Cowley was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1988 and is the recipient of several prestigious awards that include the Royal Society of Chemistry Award for Main-Group Element Chemistry, the Centenary Medal and Lectureship of the Royal Society of Chemistry, the Chemical Pioneer Award of the American Institute of Chemists, the C.N.R. Rao Award and Lecture, and the American Chemical Society Award for Distinguished Service in the Advancement of Inorganic Chemistry.

Still an active researcher, he has a wonderful group of six research students and holds the Robert A. Welch Chair in Chemistry at the University of Texas at Austin.

The 2012 Alumni Association Award Outstanding Alumnus is Andrew Cohen

Outstanding Alumni Awards are presented each year by The University of Manchester Alumni Association to former students who have achieved distinction in their field or have brought honour to the University through their outstanding achievements.

As the BBC's Head of Science Andrew Cohen is responsible for a broad range of specialist science programming across the BBC – one of the largest science content production houses in the world.

Andrew's tenure at the BBC began soon after his graduation from The University of Manchester in 1994 with a BSc in Physiology and Pharmacology. Since then, with a subsequent MSc in Science Communication from Imperial College London under his belt, he has produced hundreds of hours of network programming, including award-winning shows Wonders of the Solar System and Wonders of the Universe, and landmark series such as Inside the Human Body and Planet Dinosaur. He has also contributed to long-running stalwarts including Horizon and Tomorrow's World.

These days, managing a large team of executive producers and more than 100 staff, Andrew is responsible for supplying content to a global audience. One way he achieves this is by nurturing relationships with the broader scientific community and driving co-production partnerships with the US and China.

Away from television, he has co-authored books based on the Wonders of the Solar System and Wonders of the Universe series with presenter Professor Brian Cox. The latter went on to become Sunday Times number one bestseller and secured a Galaxy Book Prize nomination.

Andrew's awards have included the Royal Society Television Award, the Peabody Award and the Broadcasting Press Guild Award. He acts as both media adviser to the Royal Society of Research Fellows and has served on the committee of the Royal Society Summer Science Exhibition.

The 2012 Alumni Association Award Outstanding Alumnus is Mr Toby Jones

Outstanding Alumni Awards are presented each year by The University of Manchester Alumni Association to former students who have achieved distinction in their field or have brought honour to the University through their outstanding achievements.

Toby is one of Britain's most respected actors. Born in 1966, he grew up in Oxford as part of a well established acting family. His mother and his father, Freddie Jones, are both actors and one of his brothers, Rupert, is a director.

He studied drama at The University of Manchester, graduating in 1989. Since then Toby has appeared in more than 30 films, demonstrating a unique versatility and ability to master any part that comes his way. During that time, he's worked with some of the biggest names in Hollywood, from directors Steven Spielberg, Ron Howard and Oliver Stone, to A-list actors including Johnny Depp, Kate Winslet and Gary Oldman.

He was the voice of Dobby the House Elf in the Harry Potter films and gave a hugely acclaimed performance as Truman Capote in the 2006 biopic, Infamous, for which he won the London Film Critics Circle Award for British Actor of the Year. More recently, Toby has appeared on the big screen in Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy and Captain America, as well as ITV's recent blockbuster mini-series, Titanic.

Although Toby continues to enthral cinema and TV audiences, he still has a strong love of the stage. In 2001, his role in the West End comedy The Play What I Wrote secured him Best Supporting Actor at the 2002 Olivier Awards.

With more major roles on stage and screen lined up in the months and years to come, Toby is very much a star still in the ascendant. He has surely earned his status as one of Britain's most talented and memorable actors.

The 2012 Alumni Association Award Outstanding Alumnus is Michael D Parker

Outstanding Alumni Awards are presented each year by The University of Manchester Alumni Association to former students who have achieved distinction in their field or have brought honour to the University through their outstanding achievements.

Mike Parker was born in Liverpool and received a Bachelor's degree in Chemical Engineering from the University of Manchester and an MBA from the Manchester Business School.

Mike began his career with Dow in 1968. During his career with the company he worked in the US, UK, Switzerland and Hong Kong. He became President and Chief Executive Officer of The Dow Chemical Company in Midland, Michigan, USA in 2000 and a member of the company's Board of Directors from 1995 to 2003. He was appointed Group Chief Executive of BNFL (British Nuclear Fuels) in August 2003; at the end of June 2009 he finished this role following the successful dismantling and privatisation of the company.

Mike joined the Invensys Board as a Non-Executive Director in 2006 and subsequently became the Senior Independent Director. In 2008 he became Chairman of Liverpool's new economic development and regeneration company, Liverpool Vision, having been appointed as Chairman designate in October 2007. He is a Non-Executive Director at PV Crystalox Solar and SNC-Lavalin as well as being a Trustee of the Royal Society for Prevention of Accidents. Recently he has been appointed as Chairman of Street League, a national charity that utilises football to engage with inactive 16-25 year olds.

Mike is also a member of the Manchester Business School Advisory Board.

Mike was awarded a CBE in the New Year Honours 2009 for services to the energy industry.

The Affirmation

Wednesday, 11 July 10am

Graduates in Nursing and Midwifery please stand.

"I affirm that I will:

- make the care of my patients my first concern;
- treat every patient politely and considerately;
- respect patients' dignity and privacy;
- listen to patients and respect their views;
- give patients information in a way they can understand;
- respect the right of patients to be fully involved in decisions about their care;
- keep my professional knowledge and skills up to date;
- recognise the limits of my professional competence;
- be honest and trustworthy;
- respect and protect confidential information;
- make sure my personal beliefs do not prejudice my patients' care;
- act quickly to protect my patients from risk if I have good reason to believe that I or a colleague may not be fit to practise;
- avoid abuse of my position as a nurse;
- work with colleagues in the ways that best serve patients' interests.

In all these matters I will never discriminate unfairly against my patients or colleagues. I will always be prepared to justify my actions to them."

Graduates reply: "I so affirm".

Graduates sit.

Congratulations on your graduation and we hope that you have thoroughly enjoyed your time in Manchester. Whether you are taking time out to consider your options, or have already secured a job, the Careers Service wishes you the best for your future career.

Your career begins here

Congratulations on your graduation

Have you secured a graduate job offer or a place on a postgraduate course yet? If not, we are here to help. You can use the Careers Service for up to three years after graduation, for services including:

- Job vacancies. We advertise hundreds of opportunities each month: graduate-level positions with immediate start dates; training schemes with large organisations; jobs overseas; internships, and much more.
www.manchester.ac.uk/careerslink/
- One-to-one careers advice and guidance. Speak with a qualified and experienced professional to discuss career possibilities and the steps required to get a job. We can arrange a meeting in person, over the phone or online (eg Skype).
www.manchester.ac.uk/careers/students/services/
- Careers information and news. Access a wealth of resources to help you with your research by visiting our comprehensive website, Facebook Groups, Twitter accounts, blogs or our Careers Resource Centre.
www.manchester.ac.uk/careers/interactive/

Want to work in Manchester?

If you would like to stay and work in the Manchester area after graduation, sign up today for the Manchester Graduate Internship Programme (MGIP), an exclusive programme for new graduates of The University of Manchester. Through MGIP, you could get a 4-12 month, paid graduate internship in Greater Manchester.

The programme is especially ideal if you want to:

- Work for a small or medium-sized company (although we do occasionally advertise internships with large companies and indeed with the University itself)
- Gain relevant work experience to improve your chances of getting onto a graduate scheme or into a competitive area of work (eg marketing)
- Earn money to go on to further study or to go travelling

Please let us know what you're doing

In a few months you will receive an important questionnaire from us (the 'Destinations of Leavers from Higher Education' survey) to find out what you have chosen to do. The government requires all universities to send out this survey and the information collected is used to help prospective students make their choice of university. Please help us by filling it in and rest assured that the information you provide will be anonymised and treated with confidence.

Finally, keep in touch

Your student email address will be switched off very soon. Please update your preferred email address in Portal (my.manchester.ac.uk) or by visiting our stand near the robing room so that you can continue to access CareersLink for jobs and events: www.manchester.ac.uk/careerslink

We wish you every success for the future.

Alumni Association

Congratulations on your graduation day and welcome to the Manchester alumni 'family'. Today you are joining a world-wide network of over 250,000 graduates and former students and this is just the start of what we hope will be an ever-strengthening relationship between you and the University.

Now is the time to get involved and there is so much we can still offer you. Go to your alumni webpage (url below), to join us on Facebook, follow us on Twitter or connect to us on LinkedIn.

The Alumni Association is supported by the Division of Development and Alumni Relations and together we offer a wide variety of alumni activities and options for continued involvement, such as volunteering opportunities, networking events, social gatherings, career-enhancing opportunities, exciting lectures and much more. With regular events in Manchester, London and throughout the world, there are plenty of chances to meet up with fellow alumni and university colleagues.

One of the ways in which some alumni like to continue to contribute to the life of the University is through one of our active fundraising programmes. In this way, alumni support and enrich the teaching and learning of current students, contribute to outstanding university research programmes and help the University to continue to provide an excellent education to generations of students to come.

We also produce an annual alumni magazine, Your Manchester, which keeps you updated with university and alumni news. We'll send you a copy or you can read it online. Look out for it every year. We also send a regular eNewsletter, where many of our events are advertised and topical news items feature. Alumni who want to keep in touch find it very easy to do so.

The alumni website, Your Manchester Online (url below), gives you access to all this and you can also update your details online and find out about alumni networks and special-interest groups that keep in regular contact and meet across the globe.

You are automatically a member of the Alumni Association but to fully enjoy the benefits that this membership brings you can register online for your Alumni Association membership card and access to online services. Go to www.manchester.ac.uk/yourmanchester and register using your student registration number (on your library card). This registration number is unique to you and will soon become your alumni membership number.

After you have registered you can enjoy the many alumni services the University is offering you, which include the every expanding 'Your Manchester Extras' which include continued use of some of its facilities by alumni. You can still have free use of the University library and also free remote access to many academic eJournals via JSTOR. The University's sports facilities are still available to you at a discounted rate.

We have also negotiated forty special discounts and offers for alumni such as deals with various restaurants, hotels, theatres and commercial companies (full details are available online).

Famous Manchester alumni

Our graduates can be found in all walks of life and include some very famous and senior names such as: Tom Bloxham MBE (the University's Chancellor and founder of the pioneering urban renewal property development company Urban Splash), Louis de Bernières (British novelist most famous for his fourth novel, Captain Corelli's Mandolin), Brian Cox (University of Manchester Professor and Physicist working at CERN and populariser of science as presenter of a number of BBC science programmes), Benedict Cumberbatch (leading actor in the BBC television drama Sherlock), Sir Peter Maxwell Davies (composer, conductor and Master of The Queen's music), Ben Elton (comedian and writer), Olivia Hallinan (know best for her role as Laura Timmins in the BBC TV series Lark Rise to Candleford); Dr Mark Kermode (film critique), Meera Syal (writer/actress), Sophie Raworth (Newscaster/Journalist) and George Maxwell Richards (the fourth President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago). Manchester Business School Alumni Association (MBSAA)

Graduates of Manchester Business School can benefit from their own Alumni Association (MBSAA) which has a global community of over 40,000 alumni across 164 countries. MBS graduates are encouraged to register for the MBS online community site – MBSNetwork Online – in order to access a wide range of benefits and services unique to MBSAA members. These include access to free online library resources, career development tools and information, a global calendar of events, alumni chapters and a wide range of discounts and offers. MBS graduates will also receive a monthly e-newsletter containing news and research from the School, event information and discounts and offers and other communications highlighting global events.

MBS graduates are also invited to join the MBS LinkedIn group with over 8,000 members and more joining each day.

Emergency Evacuation procedure for Whitworth Hall

During the course of this event no alarm test or an emergency evacuation practice has been planned.

Therefore, if the alarm, which sounds intermittently is activated it should be treated as a potential incident requiring evacuation.

Graduands and Guests are asked to remain calm and seated and follow the instructions given by stewarding staff.

The Assembly point is on the front quadrangle which is adjacent to the Whitworth Hall in front of the John Owens Building.
